Harvard Style:

Author, Initials. Year. Title of article. Full Title of Journal, Volume number (Issue/Part number) page numbers.

- In-text Citation: (Redman, 2006, p. 22)
- More than one author in same article: (Smith and Jone, 1946,...... Up to six)
- More than one author in different article or different year: Smith (1946) and Jone, (1948).
- More than two writers: (Robinson et al, 2008)
- Example-1: Momsen, J.H. 2004 Gender and Development, Routledge, London.
- Example-4: Wilson, B., 1995, "Good Citations," Style Quarterly, Volume IX, number 3, page 102-130
- Web Page:

- Example-6: Kotler, Philip, "1965 Behavioral Models for Analyzing Buyers", Journal of Marketing October, pp.37-45
19. FORMAT OF THE DISSERTATION REPORT

Form and condition of paper for original manuscript:
The original manuscript must be printed on 8.25” x 11.5” (popularly known as A4 size) white, unlined paper. Printing must appear on only one side of each sheet.

Type style:
Ideally any legible 12-point font can be acceptable but "Times New Roman" is recommended, because they normally have greater legibility.

Margins:
The original (and all copies) must have these uniform margins.

- Left margins must be one inch (1.5") throughout.
- Right margins must be one inch throughout.
- Top margins: First pages of all chapters must have two-inch (2") margins at the top. All other pages must have one-inch (1") margins at the top bottom

Line spacing:
The spacing of the text of the original manuscript (and all copies) must be double.

Pagination:
For the original manuscript, lower case roman are to be used to number the introductory pages (From contents page to abstract and References to annexure). Usual English numerals are to be used to number remaining pages of the text (Introduction to Conclusion). Placement of pages numbers must be consistent at bottom centre.
